

ARCH/BIOANTH LUNCH TALK

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 12:00PM
SOC SCI 1, 261

LAUREN ZEPHRO

FORENSIC SERVICES SUPERVISOR
SANTA CRUZ COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

APPLIED FORENSIC ANTHROPOLOGY: AN INTRODUCTION TO CASEWORK AND PROFESSIONAL CAREERS

So you want to be a forensic anthropologist? Now what? Lauren will be discussing her work as a forensic anthropologist actively consulting for law enforcement. She will also discuss career options in forensic science and anthropology with an eye toward making your anthropology degree marketable and meaningful for gainful employment.

Lauren currently works as the Forensic Services Supervisor for the Santa Cruz County Sheriff's Office. She has been working as a forensic anthropologist since 1995. In addition to forensic anthropology, she is an expert in latent print examination and crime scene investigation.

