THE DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY’S ETHNOGRAPHIC ENGAGEMENTS WORKSHOP
WINTER 2012
THURSDAYS 10-11:30AM

FEBRUARY 9, 2012
“The Hyperreal Refugee: Politics of Truth and Suspicion in Argentina”
Stephanie McCallum (Anthropology)
Discussant: Mayanthi Fernando (Anthropology)

FEBRUARY 16, 2012
“The Braid of Minor Science and Literature: Thresholds of the Reproductive and Revolutionary Sciences”
Matthew Wolf-Meyer (Anthropology) & Chris Cochran (Anthropology)
Discussant: Wlad Godzich (Literature)

MARCH 8, 2012
“Knowing Where To Go and Finding What You Are Looking For: The Emergence and Persistence of Places of Anonymous Sexual Encounter and Street Sex Work Between Men”
Michael Atkins (Visiting Scholar, Anthropology)
Discussant: Marcia Ochoa (Feminist Studies)

MARCH 15, 2012
“The Possibilities of Happiness: California Happy Cows, Wisconsin Farmers, and the Biopolitics of Production”
Katy Overstreet (Anthropology)
Discussant: TBA

All workshops take place 10-11:45am in the Ethnographic Library, 3rd Floor, Social Science 1. Light refreshments will be served. Please email ethnographicengagements@ucsc.edu to request a copy of the text being discussed (available one week before each workshop).